Right below the summit on the Corton Mountain, this sloping vineyard named "Les Bressandes" was owned by 3 old women from Bresse.

This Corton is the only red wine to be considered Grand Cru on the Côte de Beaune. This wine is powerful but reserved. With patience, you will be rewarded with its elegance and complexity. This Grand Cru is bold and tannic with floral aromatics to make it a wonderful wine.

This wine will pair well with stewed dishes, marinated game meat and cheese.
